

Activity Sheet

Name: _____

Topic: Types of Forest in Jamaica

Instructions: Complete the crossword puzzle below. The answers are based on what you have learnt about forests in Jamaica.

Across

- _____ and Bellevue are examples of secondary forest
- A tree that may be found in the disturbed broadleaf forest
- This amount of human disturbance is found in the closed broadleaf forests?
- Type of forest where the crown of the trees do not touch each other
- Describes a forest which has a waterlogged soil
- Type of open dry forests that grows between 1-5 metres high.
- Tall open dry forests have trees that are shorter on steep slopes than on hill tops
- Forest reserve which is tall open dry
- The Cockpit Country and Blue Mountains are examples of a _____ Broadleaf Forest.

Down

- Forest Reserve that is a short open dry forest
- The _____ strip in Port Royal is an example of a mangrove forest.
- Also called stilt roots
- Swamp and mangrove forests are two types of _____ forest
- Forest that is represented by 10-25% of disturbance
- Forest that grows in brackish water
- SHRUBS _____ and shrubs are found in the short open dry forest
- Has waterlogged soil with stilt roots. Also as high as 30m

Find us on social media

